TELLE

What have you done with him? Why did you take him? What do you want?

AGENT

It's an experiment.

TELLE

He's just a little boy. What could you possibly learn from him?

AGENT

Nothing.

TELLE

This wasn't about Sam. This wasn't about the children.
We were the experiment.

AGENT

Your connection, mother to child.

TELLE

Give me back my son...

TELLE (Cont)

...and I'll do whatever you want.

AGENT

What I want, Telle, is for you to forget your son.

TELLE

-To forget Sam.

-NEVER

AGENT

If you don't, this experiment will fail.
I can't let that happen.

TELLE

I won't help you.

AGENT

There are worse things than forgetting.

TELLE

No, there aren't.

AGENT

You need to forget.

TELLE

I had life inside of me....I had life.
I have a child....I have a son.
I....have a son.
His name is Sam, you son of a bitch.
